

Directions to Penygroes Surgery

From East / West / South

From the A48 junction at Cross Hands, head north on the Llandeilo road , coming into Gorslas. After about 400 yards, when you come to the double cross roads, take the second right, turning up by the Phoenix Tavern along Penygroes road, signposted Llandybie. Continue along this road for about a mile, passing the Farmer's Arms pub on your left. Immediately after the pub, turn right at the cross roads, into Bridge Street. The surgery is 50 yards along here on the left, by the bus stop and pharmacy. For evening appointments, do not try and enter the main front door as it will be locked. Please come down the side entrance to the left of the surgery and in the side door, ignoring the No Entry sign, taking a seat in the waiting area.

From North - Llandeilo

Head south from Llandeilo on the A483 then the A476 at Ffairfach towards Cross Hands. Shortly after Carmel there is a left turn to Penygroes, if you take this, you will come into Penygroes and come to a cross roads with a Chapel on your left. Go straight across here. The surgery is 50 yards along here on the left, by the bus stop and pharmacy. For evening appointments, do not try and enter the main front door as it will be locked. Please come down the side entrance to the left of the surgery and in the side door, ignoring the No Entry sign, taking a seat in the waiting area.

From North - Llandybie

Head south from Llandybie on the Penygroes / Cross Hands road. Just as you come into Penygroes there is a cross roads, take the left hand turn (if you miss this you will pass the Farmers Arms).

The surgery is 50 yards along here on the left, by the bus stop and pharmacy. For evening appointments, do not try and enter the main front door as it will be locked. Please come down the side entrance to the left of the surgery and in the side door, ignoring the No Entry sign, taking a seat in the waiting area.

Call 07970 657 041 if you have any problems with these directions